

Treating Manager

Texas Electric Cooperatives (www.texas-ec.org), a major supplier for the electric utility industry, has an immediate opening for a Treating Manager at our wood utility pole treating facility located in Jasper, TX. This individual will oversee the daily production operations for the proper treatment of wood poles including equipment utilization and ensuring compliance with environmental and safety regulations. Bachelor's Degree and 5 years wood technology experience preferred. Experience with boilers a plus. Familiar with manufacturing flow and process improvement. This individual should have strong planning, leadership and motivational skills. If you are a highly organized team player with proven management skills then this is the opportunity for you. Interested professionals please include your name and position in the subject line and email your resume along with salary requirements to hr@texas-ec.org.